

Requesting a New Internal User Account in Stratocore

1 Go to Start page

1. Go to Stratocore (https://ppms.eu/kcl/) to access the Start page – see right.

Note: When you request a new account, you do so through one facility, but you can request access to other facilities after your account has been set up.

The screenshot shows the 'Start Page' of the Stratocore system for King's College London. It features a search bar and a list of facilities available in King's College London: Centre for Developmental Neurobiology (CDN) details, Department of Geography (Geography) details, Hodgkin CL3 Facility (CL3) details, Microscopy Innovation Centre (MIC) details, and Nikon Imaging Centre, KCL (NICatKings) details. The last item is highlighted in yellow.

2. Click the name of a facility you need to access – see right. This takes you to the Login screen where you will find Account creation request.

3. Click on Account creation request in the top menu as shown below.

The screenshot shows the top menu of the Stratocore system. The 'Account creation request' link is highlighted in yellow.

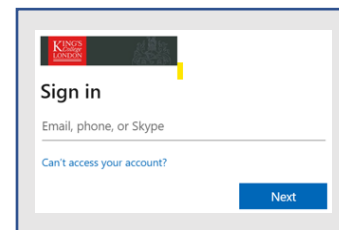

2 Make an account creation request

4. Click on Your institution is King's College London - see below - to open the user account creation form - see next page.

The screenshot shows the 'PPMS user account creation form'. It includes a dropdown menu for 'PPMS/Stratocore for the Nikon Imaging Centre, KCL - NICatKings'. The 'Account creation request' link is highlighted in the top menu. The form contains an 'Important' section with instructions and a 'Please choose one of the following options:' section with two radio buttons: 'Your institution is King's College London' (highlighted in yellow) and 'Your institution is NOT King's College London'.

Please note, at this point, you may be asked to sign in to your King's user account, if you are not already signed in or have more than one King's ID.

The screenshot shows the 'Sign in' screen. It includes a text input field for 'Email, phone, or Skype', a link for 'Can't access your account?', and a 'Next' button.

Request authorisation to use a financial account

1. To request authorisation of a financial account, known as an 'Activity code' in the King's Finance system (e.g. RE51515), click on Profile in the top menu – see right.

2. Scroll down to Financial Account Information and under 'Request authorisation to use a financial account', click New account authorisation request – see below.

3. Under Select or create an account, use the search box to find the King's Activity code you will be using to book equipment or place orders in Stratocore - see right. When found, select it and click Save.

In the unlikely event that the code you want to use is not found, please contact RMID-Help@kcl.ac.uk and ask for the Activity code to be added to Stratocore.
